Autumn 2021 Newsletter

Dear Praying Partners in the work of the Hession Trust,

Following my own recovery from the triple bypass surgery in May, I can only thank the Lord and each one of you who has prayed. For almost 2 months, I've been able to press on with my work and ministry, with limitations especially from Covid. I feel 90% better but must see my cardiologist and undergo a few tests still.

At present, we only have a small number of supporters to the RHBT, but we thank God for each one of you.

One of the reasons we would like our Special Projects to also support RHBT, is that when I am not able to carry on or go to be with Him, then the Special Projects (Founders Fund) will close. It will then be the responsibility of the Trust to keep my own books in print, together with the Roy Hession books.

These last two years have been very difficult, with most publishers outside the English world struggling for survival, and not being able to publish or reprint our books. The lack of capital and often distribution and sales are low.

Our most pro-active publisher is OM Books in India. How we thank the Lord for thousands of all our titles going out in many Indian languages, as well as in English! The USA ($) and GBP (£) is very strong against the Rupee, and so the cost of publishing and printing is quite low.

PLEASE HELP US TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS FACT. Many thousands of books have gone out in our Leadership gift packs. Many leaders and pastors have not had much formal education, and so our books are very important for them.

Covid-19 has hit India - including our work there - very hard indeed, and that is true of many nations. We need you to stand with us in these difficult days – thank you.

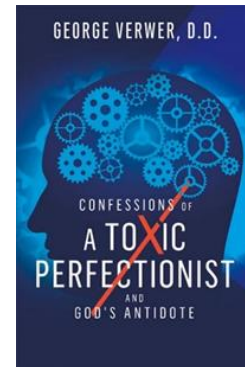

In His grip,

George Verwer

Trustee, Roy Hession Book Trust

REVIEW: 'CONFESSIONS OF A TOXIC PERFECTIONIST' BY GEORGE VERWER - ISBN 978-93-89998-46-7

'Thank you for writing this book. I hope it has meant as much to others as it has meant to me ... life has been busy and the shipping world is even more complex with all that is happening around us.

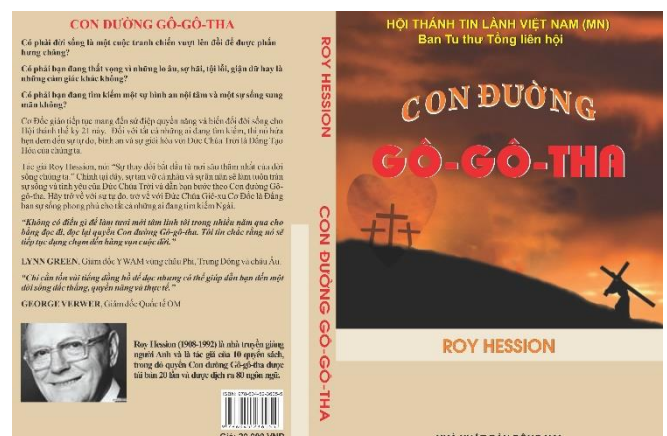

Being a 'perfectionist' myself, I can relate to much of what you write and realise that only God can be the antidote. There is lots more in these pages of this small book, and also the reading list at the back of the book encourages me to read more. I have read/seen ten of the resources you mention'.

VIETNAMESE 'CALVARY ROAD' BY ROY HESSION

'Calvary Road' by Roy Hession was translated into Vietnamese, and printed for the first time before 1975 by The Evangelical Church of Vietnam.

'In 2005, by the recommendation and help of George Verwer, we reprinted 3,000 copies, and now in 2021 we have just re-printed for a second time, 3,000 copies'

'On behalf of the Christian Education Committee (Northern), I sincerely thanks to the Roy Hession Book Trust for sponsoring us those books. We appreciate you very much for helping us to reprint this very good book.

Students of Hanoi Biblical College in Vietnam.

After receiving the books as gifts, the servants of God gave very positive feedback, it is a very useful article for thinking about the journey which Jesus suffered and experienced. The book's message guides each reader to a life of faith, and the journey to glory with the Lord. Thank you very much'!

May God bless you and your ministry, Rev Chien Trinh
