ROY HESSION
BOOK TRUST

Spring 2021 Newsletter

Dear Praying Partners in the work of Hession Trust

On behalf of the Trustees, may I thank you for your willingness to receive the Roy Hession Book Trust ('RHBT') quarterly newsletter.

We are very much aware you are all recipients of many such communications, and therefore we are especially appreciative that you are prepared to receive our newsletter.

Thank you so much for your prayerful and financial support.

As many of you know, the Trustees were asked by George Verwer to become legally responsible for all his writings and other communication media, and we were honoured to accept the challenge.

We are constantly amazed to receive daily email communications from those who share how much George Verwer's latest book: 'Confessions of a Toxic Perfectionism' is helping them work through issues in their own lives.

Copies are now available via the RHBT website.

You may also be interested to watch an interview with George on YouTube released in the last couple of weeks. The link is: <https://youtu.be/1G0QNnnGxYs>

Our Administrator, Eddie Olliffe has worked extensively on our revised RHBT website and it now illustrates all Roy Hession and George Verwer books – why not take a look at www.royhessionbooktrust.org

We are also constantly working to translate Hession/Verwer titles into ever more languages, and your financial support provides the means to do so. We would especially value your prayers.

A mistaken impression for many is the thought that book sales are rapidly diminishing, but we are delighted to share with you that George's and Roy's titles continue to expand worldwide.

At Easter-time, our thoughts turn again to the events of Calvary, and the glorious resurrection of the Lord Jesus.

May we together continue to share the reasons for Easter through the written works of Roy Hession and George Verwer.

Together in Christ,

David Ost

Chair, Roy Hession Book Trust

THE RHBT WILL BE AT CRE SOUTH-WEST AT EXETER

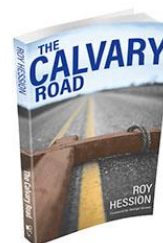

REVISED DATES: Wednesday 23 February 2022 (10am-5pm), Thursday 24 February 2022 (10am-4.30pm).

For the first time in six years, CRE South-West are inviting church leaders, officers, members and anyone involved in Christian work and ministry, to join us at Westpoint, Exeter. Westpoint is located just outside Exeter in the heart of the West Country.

The Roy Hession Book Trust will be there on Stand E26.

DAN BRITTON, 'Fellowship of Christian Athletes', Chief Field Officer, USA says of 'The Calvary Road': 'In 2008 we got invited to Operation Mobilization all staff meeting in Germany. At that meeting, I had a chance to see George Verwer, founder of OM, and actually a 40-year-friend of our family.'

As I spent time with George during a break, he leaned over and said, "Hey, have you gotten any books off the book ministry? And there were many tables that were set up. We walked over and I said, "George, what's the one book that I should read?" And he picked up 'The Calvary Road' and he said, "This book will transform your life. We make every staff person read it when they come on staff with Operation Mobilization."

On the way home from Germany, I read the book. I think I underlined every sentence. I think I "doggy-eared" every single page. And I said, "We're going to make every FCA staff person, before they come on staff, read 'The Calvary Road' because we wanted to increase their spiritual leadership and understand the concepts and the principles that were laid out in 'The Calvary Road'. It has been a game-changer'.

THE REVISED ROY HESSION BOOK TRUST WEBSITE

We have now launched the fully updated Roy Hession Book Trust website, courtesy of Paul Lewis in the United States.

The RHBT website is now more informative, and you can find all of the book titles under the two authors for whom we hold their copyright.

All of the RHBT Newsletters are also now available via the news page.

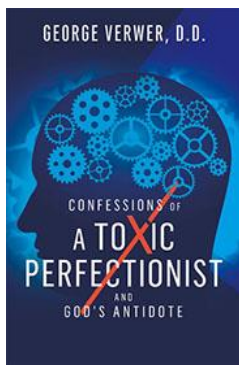

If there are other ideas you have, which you would like us to include in the website, then please email us via the contact page.

NEW BOOK: 'Confessions of a Toxic Perfectionist and Gods Antidote' (Published in 2020) by George Verwer.

A strong commitment to excellence, and doing things right in any realm is admirable. But when it develops to a toxic hidden streak as perfectionism under the pretext of perfect Christian life it can be fatal.

Billy Graham had rightly said, 'The greatest obstacle to our sanctification or godly life is our inability to see ourselves as we really are'.

Lawrence Tong (International Director, OM) says; 'I have followed George Verwer and his writings for more than forty years. 'Confessions of a Toxic Perfectionist and God's Antidote' is one of his best books yet.

Pertinent, poignant, passionate and without mincing any words, the book addresses the eroding traits that are inhibiting the body of Christ. He uses his personal life and journey as an example of God's ongoing grace and antidote to shape and transform an imperfect person to the image of Christ'.

PRAYER FOR THE ROY HESSION BOOK TRANSLATIONS

Please continue in prayer for the following 2020 translations into various languages around the world.

ETHIOPIA: 'The translation work for both books into Amharic was completed recently. However, there is still the local impact of virtual civil war, plus the current pandemic. Everything in the capital, Addis Ababa, right has slowed down. Printers are laying off workers, and are facing a serious lack of printing paper'.

FRANCE – pray for the distribution of the 'Good News for Bad People' in French around the world.

NEPAL - pray for the distribution of 'When I Saw Him' and 'We would See Jesus' in the Nepali language.

NIGERIA - pray for the distribution of 'Calvary Road' and 'We would See Jesus' in the Hausa language.

UKRAINE - pray for the distribution of 'Calvary Road' in the Ukrainian language.

VIETNAM - pray for the distribution of 'Calvary Road' in the Vietnamese language.

Roy Hession 'recounts how revival came to his personal life and ministry. With utter frankness he tells how he was blessed by failure, his life is a demonstration of the true grace of God'.
