Dear Praying Friends & Partners,

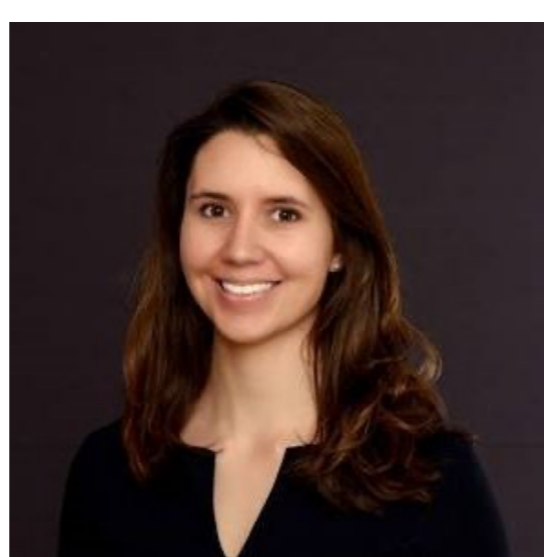

Welcome to our Spring 2025 newsletter and with it a brand new website. We launched our new site in early January, and hope you'll look through it. You can download copies of George's books, click through to hear sermons, or if you are interested in publishing any of George's or Roy's books then you can also ask for more information. Our website address is www.verwerhessiontrust.org

We also now have a donate page, so if you want to support the work we do in keeping the legacy of George Verwer and Roy Hession going then please feel free to donate online as well.

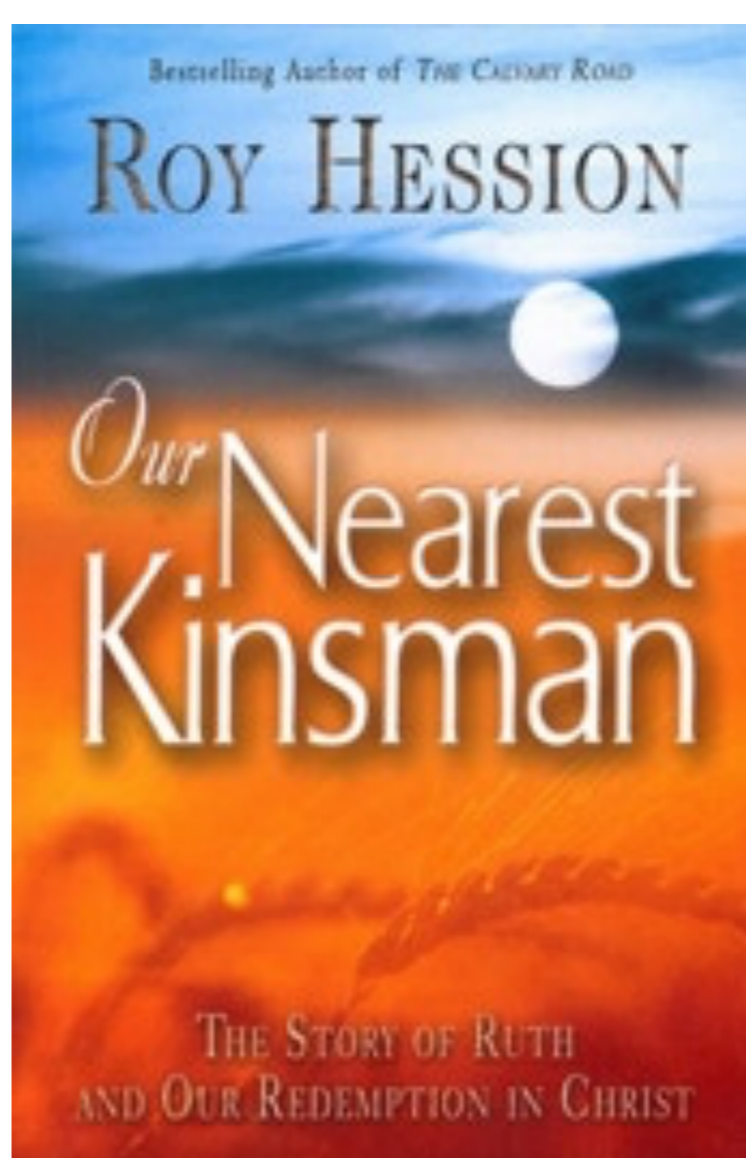

We've had a number of requests recently, to partner with publishers and printers who want to spread the words of George and Roy in the hope that it impacts. From a speaker using a YouTube channel, to translations and prints of books in Hausa; as well as translations into Farsi. Where possible we have tried to get pdf copies of those publications so that we can host them on the website.

Please pray for our Trustees, they are committed to the work that the Trust is doing, but health issues and existing commitments can take their toll.

Lizzie Francis our youngest trustee has moved overseas and now is no longer a trustee with us. We are grateful for the time she was able to give the Trust.

We are looking for new Trustees to join us. Please would you pray about considering joining us. For more information on becoming a trustee please email verwerhessiontrust@gmail.com

This is a moving study of the book of Ruth. Roy Hession shows how God's eternal plan of redemption is worked out in the lives of Ruth, Naomi and Boaz, the three principal characters in the book. Taking each section of the story in turn, the writer compellingly shows how their actions illustrate the mistakes, challenges and joys of our walk with the Lord.

He starts by commenting on the departure of the family from Bethlehem to Moab due to a famine, explaining how this is a picture of how we are tempted to find strength in the wrong places, because our relationship with God has dried up and we are experiencing a 'famine'. Instead of repenting and looking to God to restore us, we run off, like the prodigal son, to satisfy ourselves elsewhere. After a long time in the wilderness of Moab, Naomi finally recognised God's severe mercy in her life, drawing her back to Bethlehem.

Roy Hession then explores God's gracious grafting in of the Moabites, Ruth. God's heart is and has always been for all the nations. The book is particularly helpful in showing how the nearer 'kinsman-redeemer' of the Law, has had to relinquish its claim on us. Jesus, like Boaz in this story, is now our nearest kinsman.

The book is available from 'Rickfords Hill Publishing', at just £1.20 (www.rhpbooks.co.uk)

Please pray for our Upcoming Projects

Gems of George - this is a current working title for a book that is being pulled together by an editorial team who are looking through George's books and trying to pick out best and favourite quotes. We are looking to get funds in for translation and printing and are looking at various ways that can be done.

Ongoing support of small publishers who want to publish books in various languages. We will frequently get requests from the Global South for funds to publish George's books and we try as much as we can to honour that.

LE FAUX DISCIPLE

Interpellant!
Ce message perspicace de George Verwer mérite d'être largement diffusé. Il mettra sûrement beaucoup d'entre nous mal à l'aise, car tôt ou tard, nous nous reconnaitrons dans certains des portraits qui y sont présentés...
Certains sceptiques se demanderont même s'il est possible qu'il puisse exister de faux ou de pseudo-disciples de Jésus-Christ.
Malheureusement, c'est bien le cas!
Et si nous trouvons effectivement dans ce livre une image peu flatteuse de nous-même, ne cherchons pas à la dissimuler: affrontons plutôt cette mise en examen honnêtement, remettant chaque domaine de notre vie à Celui qui seul peut nous laver de nos hypocrisies cachées et faire de nous d'authentiques disciples.

George Verwer (1938-2023) a fondé Operation Mobilisation (OM) en 1961. Il en fut le directeur international pendant plus de quarante ans. Aux côtés de son épouse Doree, il fut impliqué dans cette mission jusqu'à son décès à l'âge de 84 ans. Il est l'auteur de plusieurs livres, notamment Neigeur par le globe (CLC France, 2011), La révolution de l'amour (CLC France, 2016) et Nauger malgré la confusion (éditions CLC France, 2019) et le traité Pourquoi tant de divisions? (CLC France, 2021).
